

PLANT WORKSHOP

Presented by Sean Jefferis

Date: 20 May 2013

Time: 18:00–20:00

The course comprises of the basics needed to keep plants alive while in store, as well as information on how to identify aquatic plant species commonly kept in South Africa. We will also give you information on how to better help customers with regards to planted aquariums.

- The Basics: Fertilization, Co2, Lighting, Plant Nutrient Deficiencies
- Types of Algae and how to get rid of them.
- Different aquatic plant species.
- Proper Disposal Techniques.

Only 20 seats available. Please book in advance by phoning 083 288 7574 or info@sapettraders.co.za before 15 May 2013.

VENUE:

Pinetown
DURBAN

COSTS:

R400 per person
SAPTA members
R200 per person

Book 3 delegates and more and receive a 20% discount

